DONATE AND BUY OR FREE PICKUP OF USED ITEMS IN GOOD CONDITION:

Social Media Resources

Buy Nothing Cambridge Facebook: Highly active local groups for community. Rehome and get to know your community.
NextDoor Cambridge: Useful for local, rapid donation or selling.
Craigslist: Online selling/buying platform.
FreeCycle - Environmental friendly donations within the community.

Donation Dropoff and Buy Used Items Options (some offer receipts for tax purposes)
Boomerangs by More Than Words: Thrift store in Cambridge run by a non-profit social organization empowering at-risj youth by taking charge of business
Goodwill Stores: nonprofit retail thrift centers that sell donated goods. Located at 520 Massachusetts Ave, Cambridge.
Salvation Army Stores: Thrift shops that sell donated goods. Proceeds fund the organization's Adult Rehabilitation Centers.
Solutions At Work: Providing clothes, books, accessories and more to low-income and homeless people in Cambridge and beyond.
MIT Furniture Exchange: Service project of the MIT Women's League, where you can donate and discover discounted used furniture/household goods while supporting scholarships at MIT.
Harvard Recycling & Surplus Center: Open every Thursday from 10 a.m. - 1 p.m,. Harvard's Recycling and Surplus Center offers items free to anyone on a first-come, first-served basis.

Donation Pickup Organizations (offering receipts for tax purposes)

Big Brother Big Sister: Picks up clothing and small household items right from your door steps.
Epilepsy Foundation of New England:Collects clothing and household goods from curbside.
Resupply: Partners with charities to pick up furniture and bulk items.
Furnishing home MA: Accepts furniture donations, requires photos emailed to outreachcoordinator@furnishinghopema.org.
Habitat for Humanity: Picks up furniture and building materials from curbside.

DONATE USING CITY PROGRAMS

Helpsy bins: Donate used clothes and shoes in any condition.
Recycling center drop offs: E-waste, electronics, books, toys and much more. Visit the website (https://www.cambridgema.gov/services/recyclingcenter).
Cambridge Community Fridge: Community Driven food fridge located around Cambridge. Donate/Pickup. (https://www.edibleboston.com/blog/2021/3/24/where-to-find-community-fridges-and-little-free-pantries-in-greater-boston-and-worcester-county)
Little Free Libraries: Drop a box, pick a book. All across Cambridge, visit the website (https://littlefreelibrary.org/map/)

For an itemsized searchable map of donation sites near cambridge visit the Beyond Bin tool on the RecycleSmartMA website (https://recyclesmartma.org/beyond-the-bin-search/)